

Summer & Enrichment Programs 2010

(Recent additions are in red.)

Summer Leadership Institute

Location: Wofford College

Focus: Servant leadership

Length: One week

Dates: June 6 – 12, 2010

Age requirement: Current juniors/rising seniors

Application deadline: Applications must be submitted to the Hanna Guidance Office by March 29, 2010. Only one applicant can attend from Hanna and that student will be selected by a committee.)

Other pertinent information: Throughout the week students attend workshops on presentation techniques, team building, leadership styles, brainstorming and problem solving. They then have the opportunity to implement the skills working with the community service project in simulated games and at an etiquette dinner.

For more information/application: www.milliken.com/sli

Wachovia Scholars Business at Moore Summer Program

Location: University of South Carolina (Columbia)

Focus: Business

Length: One week

Dates: June 19 – 25, 2010

Age requirement: Current juniors/rising seniors

Application deadline: March 12, 2010

Other pertinent information: This program is an all expense paid one-week residency program designed to introduce high achieving current juniors/rising seniors who are minority students to the study of business related fields through a carefully tailored curriculum. Participants are eligible to compete for Wachovia Scholars scholarships. A minimum of five scholarships will be awarded annually. Applications are available in the guidance office.

For more information/application: www.mooreschool.sc.edu.

SC Area Health Education Consortium

Location: Charleston, SC

Focus: Healthcare profession

Length: One week

Dates: June 6-11, 2010

Age requirement: Eighteen years old

Cost: Housing and meals will be provided. Students that complete the Academy successfully will receive a stipend of $200.

Other pertinent information: this program provides support and guidance for minority and disadvantaged students that have an interest in pursuing careers in the healthcare field.

For more information/application: www.scahec.net

Preface Summer Program

Location: Troy, NY

Focus: Engineering and technological professions

Length: Two weeks

Age requirement: Rising high school juniors and seniors

Cost: Tuition, fees, and room and board for the two-week sessions are all paid for by corporate sponsors. The only cost to participants is a health center fee and personal and miscellaneous (snacks, souvenirs, laundry, etc.) expenses.

Other pertinent information: This program is for high school students from groups that have been historically and traditionally underrepresented or under-served in science, engineering, and technological fields.

For more information/application: <http://doso.rpi.edu/update.do?catcenterkey=87>

Emerging Public Leaders

Location: Furman University

Focus: Service-based leadership

Dates: June 20-26, 2010

Age requirement: Rising high school seniors

Other pertinent information: This program is free of charge to all students who are selected to participate.

Registration deadline: Nominations due by April 5, 2010

For more information/application: www.rileyinstitute.org

Girls Leadership Institute

Location: Columbia, SC

Focus: To prepare girls for leadership roles

Dates: Various

Length: 5-7 days depending on program

Age requirement: 9th - 12th grade

Cost: $500-$600

Other pertinent information: A limited number of need-based scholarships are available.

Registration deadline: Students that are interested must notify guidance March 1, 2010.

For more information/application: www.columbiasc.edu/leadership_inst

Four Star Camps

Location: Charlottesville, VA

Focus: Writing, math, economics, architecture, environmental studies, international business, languages, etc.

Length: Various

Age requirement: 9th - 12th grade

Other pertinent information: Weekend excursions to Washington, DC and Virginia Beach

For more information/application: www.4starcamps.com

Discovery Student Adventures

Location: Artic, China, Ecuador, New Zealand, Australia, Costa Rica, South Africa, Italy

Focus: Academics and adventure in nature

Length: Various

Age requirement: 9th - 12th grade

Other pertinent information: These trips employ a unique mix of academic and adventure to bring the discovery essence to life. Whether spending the night in a snow cave in New Zealand, camping among ancient Inca ruins and Ecuador, or witnessing great white sharks in their natural habitat in South Africa, students are sure to become empowered as they see more of the world through these adventures and hands on learning activities.

For more information/application: www.discoverystudentadventures.com or 866-963-3417

National Youth Leadership Forum on Medicine

Location: Atlanta, Chicago, Baltimore, Boston, Los Angeles, etc.

Focus: To identify future physicians

Length: 10 days

Age requirement: 9th - 12th grade

College credit available:

Other pertinent information: $2,560 which includes accommodations, breakfasts and dinners, instruction, supervisory personnel, program materials, all forum activities, and private motor coach transportation during the program. Some scholarships are available.

Registration deadline: Nominations due by September 25, 2009 (see your counselor if interested)

For more information/application: www.nylf.org/med